MAKING THINGS HAPPEN IS OUR EVERYDAY JOB.

Eventful is an experienced and efficient live events and marketing company, specialising in gloriously memorable corporate occasions that go smoothly from welcome to wind-up, bringing you the results you're looking for. From glittering awards ceremonies and gala dinners to high quality conferences and exhibitions, for us the magic is in giving each one its own unique personality.

We know how to translate ideas into action. We have the skills, we know all the right people, we enjoy doing it and, above all, we have a proven track record of solid success.

THE MAGIC IS IN GIVING EACH ONE ITS OWN UNIQUE PERSONALITY.

EXACTLY WHAT YOU WANT, EVEN WHEN YOU DON'T KNOW WHAT YOU WANT.

Sometimes our clients have a pretty clear idea about detail. Sometimes, they just want brilliant. Our work starts with conversations where we listen hard, understand the message, make suggestions and ask all the right questions.

Once we understand what your event's about, what it's going to achieve, what it will feel like and what people will take from it, we start to make it happen.

MAKE SUGGESTIONS,
AND ASK ALL THE
RIGHT QUESTIONS.

IT'S NOT SORCERY. NOT QUITE.

Nothing is ever one hundred per cent predictable. It would be dull if things were. Great events are about how people react to the music, the programme, the speeches... and to each other, of course.

So we plan meticulously, drawing on an accumulated fund of experience, enthusiasm, inspiration, creativity, expertise and empathy. We bring in the right professionals, people we know and trust, for things like catering, audio visual and design. We do whatever's needed, to deliver an experience that has the impact you want.

EXPERTISE, EMPATHY
AND ENTHUSIASM.

EXCEPTIONAL EVENTS
BRING EXCEPTIONAL RESULTS.

Our enthusiasm never gets in the way of our solid professionalism. Our projects happen on time, as planned and within budget. We not only look ahead, we peek round the corners to make sure that we're not overtaken by the unexpected. As the swan of your event glides majestically onwards (or it could be a duck with a top hat on, that's your call) your guests will be entirely unaware of Eventful's energetic paddling below the surface. That's the way we like it. And that's why our clients keep coming back.

OUR PROJECTS
HAPPEN ON TIME,

WITHIN BUDGET.

BUT DON'T TAKE OUR WORD FOR IT..

We've told you how good we think we are. But there's no substitute for an independent, unbiased opinion. Here are some typical comments from previous clients, along with short summaries of the events that ticked all their boxes.
